REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

The students and staff at Loris Middle School have much to celebrate. We have shown improvements in academics at all grade levels. Our efforts have focused on improving achievement for all students, with a primary focus on improving literacy and numeracy skills across the curriculum.

Students at Loris Middle School were recognized for many accomplishments during the past year. One student was recognized as a Duke TIP Scholar, and seven students were recognized as South Carolina Junior Scholars. A student won the Lt. Governor's Essay Contest, and another student won the Governor's Citizenship Award.

Many of our students were recognized for the Beacon Awards presented by Santee Cooper. Our drama department produced High School Musical, and our chorus, orchestra, and band programs continued to excel and receive awards.

Our teachers continued to grow professionally by participating in continuous staff development opportunities and graduate coursework. Rebecca Coleman and Diana Pendleton gained National Board Certification, and our teacher of the year, Jean Burden, was named Horry County Schools Teacher of the Year.

Thanks to the generous donations of our PTO, parents, and the community, we were able to upgrade our sound system in the auditorium as well as purchase two benches for our playground.

We were also able to provide recognition items for our students at quarterly Renaissance Programs.

We will continue exhibiting our Lion Pride through perseverance, respect, integrity, determination, and excellence as we work even harder in the upcoming year. Our staff, PTO, School Improvement Council and administration will be dedicated to our goal of achieving excellence.
